*A southland of mountains, sea

Administration

The guidance of over two thousand Warriors and the handling of the many other problems of a large secondary school requires the highest type of administrative leader. University's "big three", Mr. Ralph Wadsworth, Miss Helen Darsie, and Mr. James Lloyd form one of the ablest trios of principals in the city.

Arthur G. Ramey, Boys' Vice Principal, Fall.

Heading this well-liked administrative group is Mr. Wadsworth, whose unceasing efforts to improve all phases of school life, fine personal character, and kindly concern for all those affiliated with him is recognized by students and faculty alike.

Girls throughout the school look to the excellent leadership of Miss Helen Darsie, efficient and charming always, who is an enthusiastic sponsor of Girls' League and Tri-Y activities, and has found a secure place in the hearts of all with her sympathetic counsel and utmost sincerity in meeting girls' problems.

Mr. Arthur Ramey, popular boys' vice principal and leader in Hi-Y activities, left University at the end of the fall semester to head a school in Buenos Aires. His fine educational philosophy and able and cheerful service will long be remembered here at Uni.

His successor, Mr. James Lloyd, has shown a personal interest in the problem of each boy. The welcome sign is always out on Mr. Lloyd's office door, and the loyal following that he has already won in his short stay here is proof of his ability to meet the students on a common ground.

Keeping the school running smoothly and looking after the welfare of so many students is a tremendous job, but Uni's administration by their good advice and warm encouragement have succeeded in directing this year's reservationists toward a happy and successful high school career.

Continental's

Introducing their sophisticated theme, the Continentals doffed top hats to the student body on their first field day when they bowed in defeat to their predecessors, the Carousels, by a score of 5 to 0.

The next event on the agenda was the Senior Prom honoring the departing Senior A's. The Continentals, using their ingenuity, came forth with original decorations in the circus theme, and the dancers were delighted by red and white streamers, a mound of balloons that cascaded from the ceiling, and clever caricatures of the leaders of both classes.

On Color Day, the student body was entertained for an evening in the Club Continental, as the management presented vocal, dance, instrumental, and comedy numbers. The highlight of the show was the finale when the entire cast came forth, surrounded by 150 seniors. The presentation of the song was accompanied by dozens of royal blue streamers thrown into the audience, and the student body enthusiastically applauded as Peggy Kilburn, dressed in a royal blue formal, took her place as queen of Color Day.

Even though they were unable to obtain sweaters, the Sophisticates persisted in presenting their colors on Field Day, wearing individually chosen sweaters. They lost Field Day to the Khalifs 4 to 1, but never-the-less came through with sporting spirit.

The Senior A's danced under soft lights as they were honored by the Khalifs at their prom in the Club Continental. One of the features originated by the Senior B's was a smooth "Royal Blue Room", where hosts and guests drank cokes and took time out from their dancing.

Graduation came in January, and as the last member of the class walked out of the auditorium to the traditional commencement medley, underclassmen and faculty watched with regret the closing for the last time of the door to the Club Continental.

Khalifs

The mystery and intrigue of the East were brought to life when the class of Summer '47 introduced their fanciful theme on Field Day. Seven harem-girls emerged from their Baghdad tent to present the class name, as other Khalifs were writing the first pages of class history on the battlefield, winning over the Continentals by a score of 4 to 1.

The swank "Club Continental", a product of Khalif imagination and design, provided a background for the Senior Prom. Members of both senior classes enjoyed the New York skyline, sophisticated entertainment, and the Royal Blue Room.

The summer class staged one of Unihi's finest Color Days on March 8. Everyone was immediately caught by the spirit of the day when they entered the insense-filled auditorium, and were transported by Alladin's lamp to the scene of the Sultan's chambers. Here he and his court were being entertained by envoys from neighboring lands. The class colors were presented by six girls dressed in cherry-red and gray harem costumes, since the ordered sweaters had not arrived.

The spring semester Field Day found the Khalif girls not only supporting their winning teams, but also participating in an exciting hockey game, and adding new interest to the already eagerly anticipated event. Proving that this was all in the spirit of fun, a few weeks later the Senior B's presented a fine prom in honor of the boys and girls from Baghdad.

The class gave University a great deal in athletics, leadership, talent, and service. Every athletic team, the Knights, Squires, Mawandas, student government, service committees and boards felt a loss with their departure.

Commencement in June took nearly 450 Warriors from the Reservation, and as this last chapter was written in their own book of "Arabian Nights", the entire school saw with regret the closing of the never-to-be-forgotten story of the Khalifs.

MELEDONIANS

The Meledonians are organized for the purpose of encouraging and rewarding high scholastic achievement. Following their motto, "Scholarship for Service", the Meledonians have instigated an extensive program for tutoring in all academic subjects. Four semesters' membership in the Meledonian Society is the prerequisite for becoming a Sealbearer upon graduation. Mrs. Hoffleit and Mr. Henley are the sponsors.

Government

Student government is important at University High School. By holding office, many students become aware of the problems of government and each officer has a chance through his student leadership to see his ideas put into action. Unihi's divergent activities require leaders of the highest type and this year an exceptionally competent as well as popular group has directed student affairs.

The Student Body President and his cabinet have the greatest responsibility. Both capable and likeable fellows, Ellsworth Clark and Jim Harris led the Warriors in the fall and spring, respectively. Their greatest strength lay in their fine Boards of Commissioners. These groups directly supervised various student activities and made decisions in accordance with the opinions expressed by members of the Student Council who represent the home-rooms. In this way every Warrior had a chance to play some part in seeing that all went well at University. Commissioners for both semesters included the following—Organizations: Jim Harris, Herb Hiestand; Boys' Welfare: Bill Palmer, Frank Bruner; Girls' Welfare: Janet Martin, Jacque Phillips; Public Relations: Herb Hiestand, Lee Coulter; Records: Carol Leonard, June Rowley; Athletics: Bill Bretthauer, Roy Sickner; Scholarship: Jackie Fischer, Joyce Palmer; Boys' Recreation: Webb Coulter, Wayne Graves; Girls' Recreation: Ann Elser, Gay Thomas; Publicity: Jack Dean, Kenny Shaw; Publications: Howard Pixley, Pete Stone; Safety: Rodger Peterson, Don Hangen; Student Employment: Gladys Golds, Rodger Peterson; Finance: Rodger Karrenbrock, Joan Lieb.

One of the aims of the Girls' League, under the direction of the league officers and Miss Darsie, is uniting the girls for their mutual enjoyment and assistance. To provide for the ever increasing needs of the student body, the League has provided both junior and senior boards by means of which every girl may share in giving service to others. She may serve on the all important Board of Hearing, the newly created Honesty Board, on the Friendship, Hostess, Publicity, Design and Decoration, Floral Study, Suitable Dress, Literature or Red Cross boards. Among the diversified responsibilities of these boards are the orientation of new girls, serving at parties and teas, keeping the student body up to date on school events by means of a calendar in the main hall, taking care of special decorations and flower arrangements, featuring attractive displays of suitable dress in the show cases, reporting on the latest books, and working on Red Cross projects.

Introducing the honor system in attendance was one of the main activities of the Girls' League this year. The Board of Hearing, which was in charge of this important project, worked closely with the Boys' Board of Hearing. Together, they planned a campaign which acquainted students with the new system by which the student assumes responsibility for his own absence excuse.

The Girls' League also found time to take its unusually active part in Girls' Week. Girls from Uni ably represented us at other schools and Girls' Day proved a big event when girls took over the school administrative posts and teaching jobs.

This year's Boys' League has participated in many projects for community betterment, service to the school and aid to individual students. Mr. Ramey and Mr. Lloyd, fall and spring Boys' Vice-Principals, devoted their time and abilities in planning a program which would carry these ideals to a successful end.

As presidents of the Boys' League, Bill Palmer and Frank Bruner planned the service projects, while Frank Bruner and Art Stumpus, Vice-presidents, were responsible for all the League assemblies. Secretary-treasurers, Jack Keating and Dick Davis, maintained the business records.

The Boys' Board of Hearing, a vital part of the League, includes eleven of the school's outstanding leaders. Its purpose is to maintain the high standards of conduct set by University and to generally encourage and strengthen citizenship. The members of this board include the officers of the Boys' League, Presidents of the Knights, Barons, Squires and Hi-Y Council; the Commissioner of Athletics, Safety and Boys' Recreation, and the ranking officer in the R.O.T.C. Responsibilities of this board include warnings and advice to wayward students and sentences which may result in exclusion from student activities or periods of probation. This year the Board of Hearing organized the system of traveling to athletic events by caravans. In this program the Barons policed the highways and traffic centers and guided traffic in a manner which proved both safe and fast.

The activities of the Safety Council, which also aids in game transportation problems, includes auto registration, parking patrol, fire drills and campus safety checks. Both Board and Council receive the support of the service groups in carrying out their essential duties in University High School's student government.

FOOTBALL

University 25, Hamilton 15

Opening the fight for the '46 Western League pennant, the University Varsity trampled the Hamilton Yankees to the tune of 25-15. A ten-yard touchdown slice by Merv Adelson climaxed a thrilling drive which included 20- and 16-yard runs by Ed Ontiveros, a pass with two laterals, and three straight first downs. Receiving a pass flipped by Nate Ellena, Tom Elliot outdistanced the Yank secondary 77 yards for another goal, and after Hamilton had nabbed a safety, the half ended 12-2, Indians ahead. The remaining two touchdowns were the results of the combined talents of Adelson, Stringfellow and McKenzie in the last half.

University 0, Fairfax 13

For two years the Lion Varsity has played havoc with Uni's pennant chances, and once again a hardhitting Fairfax eleven pushed the out-classed Warriors around. The Braves were definitely in a slump as their improvement in following games proved. The first score came just before the fourth quarter when Lion Marvin Bubin skirted end for 24 yards and the touchdown. Schechtal made the last six points on a center buck.

University 24, Hollywood 0

Snapping back from the trouncing at the hands of Fairfax, Uni's Warriors thoroughly outplayed the bewildered Hollywood eleven. Ed Ontiveros, again proving that he is worthy of All-League-honors, scored three touchdowns, while Pete Escobar accounted for the remaining tally.

High-lights of the game in which Uni's offense and defense functioned perfectly, were the brilliant 65 yard run by Ed Ontiveros, the pass from Ellena to Menge, who lateraled to Hamilton, Pete Escobar's drive through left guard, and the outsprinting of the entire Sheik backfield.

University 6, Venice 7

This game unveiled an inspired Redskin eleven who battled the Venice Gondoliers evenly up to the last minute of play. The first half was a see-saw affair. However, a spot pass from Cardenas to Ontiveros who streaked down the side lines to score, gave Uni the edge. In the second half Venice lost a near-score when Tolman narrowly missed a long pass thrown by quarterback O'Connor. Later, with two minutes of play, the O'Connor to Tolman combination clicked, and Venice moved ahead when Tolman kicked a successful conversion. However, with Roy Sickner and Jerry Adams as standouts, the Redskin line played a determined game.

University 6, Dorsey 6

Displaying power and grit that is seldom seen on high school gridirons, University's Braves captured a 6-6 tie with the heavily favored Dons. The Indians began their fight when Jim McKenzie smashed through all interference to block a kick and set up our lone tally. Completely overcoming the Dons, was the powerful overhead attack by Cardenas, Ontiveros, powerful Kiyoshi Tomikawa, and Merv Adelson. The tie threw the mighty Dorsey eleven into a probable tie for the league title, and gave the Warriors a spectacular finish to what had been a hot and cold season.

Bee

The fighting Bees opened the '46 football season with two returning lettermen and a host of potential ball carriers. Coach Joe Hesslein started the Uni aggregation into action against San Fernando and Canoga Park. These games uncovered a strong backfield combination with Allen Jayne, Ronny Clark, Mitchel Gratz and Dick Drum, and a fighting line which had Dave Kirbach and Ray Wheeler ends, Bob Mabry and Sam Levine guards, Bob Wilke and Irwin Moon tackles, and center Frank Bruner.

University 12, Hamilton 13

Losing for the first time in nine league games, the Warrior Bees began the season in a thrilling 13-12 contest. Ronny Clark scored Uni's two touchdowns which were set up by Willie Lucero and Mitchell Gratz.

University 14, Fairfax 0

Getting back into winning ways in their second league game, the Bees rolled over hapless Fairfax to the tune of 14-0. Highlights included an 85-yard run by Allen Jayne, and a pass-lateral combination with Mark Hurford scoring.

University 14, Venice 7

In this struggle, the Bees smothered the Venice Gondoliers by a score of 14-7. First, center Frank Bruner captured a pass and sprinted 50 yards to paydirt; following this was an unsustained drive by Allen Jayne, Dick Bowyer and Mark Hurford, with Bud Wisdom scoring, and Dick Bowyer converting.

University 0, Hollywood 24

Once again biting the dust, the Warrior Midgets were defeated on Uni's own field. Sheik Hathaway set up the first Hollywood touchdown, and from there the cards simply fell the wrong way. Ronny Clark, Arnold Stevens and Mark Hurford, however, played an outstanding game.

University 0, Dorsey 19

Firmly stopping the University Bees, the Dorsey Dons won the final game of the season, although Dick Drum exhibited a brilliant passing attack, completing 8 of 11 passes, and Willie Lucero shone by averaging 3.14 yards per try.

In the first game of the season, Unihi's basketball team came through with inspired fighting spirit by downing the much favored Yanks by one point. The Warriors kept the lead all the way but gave the casaba fans some real excitement in the closing minutes of the game. The second tilt was a real heartbreaker as Hami overcame a ten-point lead in the third quarter with a barrage of buckets totaling 21 points.

University 30, Fairfax 37 University 45, Fairfax 33

The first tilt with the all city champions showed Fairfax playing true to form by holding the lead throughout the first game. The Warriors made a good showing, but couldn't compete with the fast breaking Colonials. However, in the second game, the Indian casabamen ran the Colonials all over the floor. Every man played a skilled game and all were on their toes till the closing minutes of the game, winning by a margin of 12 points.

University 28, Hollywood 24 University 27, Hollywood 31

The favored Hollywood cagers received quite an upset in their first game with Uni as the Warriors handed them their first defeat. The Indians played a brilliant defensive game, holding the Sheiks to 15 points until the second team went in. In the second tilt, Hollywood redshirts took the advantage, coming from behind at the half to win a decisive game.

University 27, Venice 21 University 36, Venice 36

Unihi's first game with Venice was badly played by the local casaba-men. However, they outclassed the Condoliers managed to keep the lead and rack up a league game. After a disheartening first half in which Venice chalked up a 10-point lead, the boys from Texas and Westgate came back in spirited form to register 14 points and gain the victory.

University 52, Dorsey 36 University 38, Dorsey 25

The Unihi Warriors held high score throughout this contest with Dorsey and showed easily that they were the better team. The reservationists controlled the ball nicely in their first game but the second tilt was played even more deftly as the Warriors finished the season in fine form with a total of 7 wins and 3 losses.

Swartz Winding Up

University High's 1947 outlook on baseball was brighter than usual, at the time of this writing.

Coach Jerry Marvin of the varsity nine was blessed with six returning lettermen, four of whom were gunning for their third stripe in the diamond sport. Merv Adelson, able catcher for the past two seasons, Sherwin Swartz, rated one of the top twirlers in the city, Don Stewart, one of the brightest prospects ever to grace the Reservation, and Eddie Ontiveros, fleet-footed outfielder, are the quartet of three year monogram winners. The remaining two sweatmen were Kiyoshi Tomikawa, and Bob Zeider, who cavorted at the and flyhawk positions respectively. Dave Blanchard, crackerjack first basemen, Jerry Adams, up and coming third sacker, and Wayne West, alert rightfielder, round out the first nine.

Like their varsity brothers, the Jayvees, under the coaching of Joe Hesslein, had a pretty good nucleus for '47. David Kirbach, Doug Huegin, Ronnie Garver, and Amador Estrada were the standouts during the early season play.

For the first time a tenth grade team was started at Uni this year and was mentored by Coach Hesslein.

Warrior Sprint Power—Buck, Jayne, Elliott

University Distance Spikesters—Kendall, Ganz, Bruner, Hangen

The 1946 track season once again produced a championship league team, bringing the record to twenty-six straight dual meet victories, plus six league final wins and one all-city title.

With this unusual and certainly unique record behind them, the 1947 spike aggregation looks forward to another successful season. However, at press time, it is not known whether or not the Warrior track record has been upheld. This enviable record is by no means a result of accident or from lack of stiff competition; but is due to the good material which through the past years has graced the reservation and to the untiring efforts, true sportsmanship, and superb coaching of Coach Jim Pursell. Not to be forgotten when praise is passed around is Tom Wilcox, the Coach who supplies the Bee and Cee teams with spike knowledge and renders invaluable aid to all throughout the season.

This year's varsity performers consist of six returning lettermen, plus many holdovers from last year and a host of hopefuls up from the Bee ranks. Standouts in their individual events are Ronnie Buck, Allen Jayne and Rod Kenmore in the 100 yard dash and the 220. In the high hurdles we find the triple threat of Jack Dean, Jim Menge, and Jackson Quine, while skimming the lows are Jack Dean, Dave Moore, and Jackson Quine. Moving on to the longer distance races, the 440 spotlight centers on Tom Elliott, Dick Crumley, and Tom Williamson. Stellar standout in the 880 is pace-setter Bill Bretthauer, closely followed by Bob Moyer. Switching to the mile, we find Don Hangen holding down the first position, with Frank Bruner close on his heels.

In the field events three top-men distinguish themselves in the pole vault, Dave Moore, Bob Van Dyke and Phil Dennis, while in the high jump is Jim Menge, Fred Oakley and Ed Koster. The broad jump provides another triple-threat, Don Betts, Stan Christ, and Bob Kramer. Last but not least is the shot-put, dominated by the dynamic duo of Darrell Jordan and Russ Childs.

Other strong contenders for starting berths in their individual events are: Don Llewellyn and Bob Wilke, 100 and 220; Don Morrison, Jim Chappel, and Bob Wilkinson, hurdles; Artie Hamilton and Willis Chambers, 440; John Booth and Steve Reyes, 880; Julian Ganz and John Kendall, mile; Wilbur Creagar, broad jump; Malcolm Pier-son, Bob Bacon, and Ed Wedemeyer, shot put.

Bee and Cee Track

The 1947 Bee squad, with strength and depth in almost all events, looks forward to a successful season after dropping a practice meet by a single lowly point. Main point garnerers are Gene Hudson, Dick Reynolds, and Morley Bates, sprints; Wayne Graves, Rudy Schad, and Bill Kerr, hurdles; Bob Hanley and Duke Wilson, 660; Wally Fouts and "Skip" Tetrick, the 1320.

In the field events are Dave Dietrich, Chuck Peacock, and Ted Lapadakis, pole vault; John Sheffield, and Phil Linz, shot put. John Walker and Don Pettitt, broad jump, round out the team.

Showing a real spirit of enthusiasm, the Cee track team is sparked by the following point-minded mid-gets: Bob Newhouse and Bill Smith, sprints; Bob Schad, hurdles; Ralph Primo and Leland Kerr, 660. Keith Klose in the high jump completes the roster of squad leaders.

The gym team, sparked by Coach Bill Ruess, met some of the most outstanding squads in the city. Development was fast for a first year of competition. The Warrior gymnasts lost a first encounter at Hamilton, which had several top city contestants from last year, and met defeat in Fairfax and Hollywood meets, but improvement was great. In each meet, points were doubled and increased interest and training evident. The Dorsey Dons, leading contenders for city honors, gave the Warriors needed experience and exceptional technique. In the last meet with Venice, known for championship teams, the Uni-matmen took four firsts out of a possible seven.

To determine who will compete in a meet, practice tournaments are held throughout the week. From the entire squad of enthusiastic racquet-wielders, nine men are picked to play, five singles and two doubles. The home tournaments this year will be held at U.C.L.A.

Gaily singing "Sailing on Together," the members of the Girls' Athletic Association breezed through a delightful sea of 1946-1947 activities, sponsored by Miss Seminario and Miss Wetzel, who stowed her seabag at Uni for the first time this year.

Under the command of Skipper Gwen Lewis, the good ship G.A.A. dropped anchor first at San Pedro High for a playday with Torrance, Gardena, Banning, Narbonne, and San Pedro. Carrying back top honors, the girls swabbed the decks and polished brass for play day at the home port when they gave Venice, Marshall, and Fairfax battle in volleyball, speedball, basketball, baseball, and badminton.

The successful launching of the school cheering section during football season which was put into operation by Ann Elser, Commissioner of Girls' Recreation, and the Letter-girls, was another outstanding activity. The blue U over the sea of white made a spectacular sight and urged Warriors on to victory.

After celebrating Christmas leave, the G.A.A. climaxed a busy tour of duty with their semi-annual banquet. Officers for the fall semester were: President, Gwen Lewis; Vice-President, Shelia Higgins; Secretary, Louise Burrill; Treasurer, Aimee Lou VanDuzer; Tenth-Grade Representative, Joan Young; Eleventh-Grade Representative, Mary Jean Davis; Twelfth-Grade Representative, Carolyn Stevens; and Cheer Leaders, Glenellen Douglas, Betty Biller, Marjorie Cooper, and Jeannine Pease.

Those wearing the gold braid for the spring voyage were: President, Vera Sherriffs; Vice-President, Pat Volder; Secretary, Shirley Rowe; Treasurer, Gay Thomas; Twelfth-Grade Representative, Diane Falconer; Eleventh-Grade Representative, Joan Shetler; Tenth-Grade Representative, Molly McCracken; Cheer Leaders, Janice Ferris, Betty Biller, and Betty Lawrence.

The Good Neighbor Policy was well established when Uni Mermaids were guests at two spring playdays. After new recruits proved their rates to Neptune and became full fledged members, their first destination was Hollywood High where sixty top-notch ship mates participated in tough competition. Next, according to the Ships' Log, May 14 was "U" day with Los Angeles High.

During the spring months each grade sponsored an outing or party climaxed by the spring banquet, where letters were awarded and the Khalifs bid Aloha.

★ ★ R.O.T.C.

University High is one of the 14 schools in the Los Angeles system that offers an R.O.T.C. course to fellows interested in military science. Sergeants Davis and Joslin have assisted Captain Wilder in producing an outstanding battalion at Uni this year. With three days of drill, one of theory, and one of athletics, the fellows have been prepared to go out for and bring back top honors.

The R.O.T.C. has maintained its high rating in rifle matches, shows, and national competitions this year, winning third place in a rifle match held at U.C.L.A. with thirteen other schools. Activities included two shows at Emerson Junior High School, an exhibition for the P.T.A., participation in Army Week, and a parade at Long Beach. During the Easter holidays, March Field was inspected and the fellows learned about training and living conditions provided there, and on April 19th the drill team, the band, and color guard participated in the California Band Concert held at U.C.L.A. These activities have kept the R.O.T.C. on its toes but the big event of the year has yet to come at the time of this writing. Federal inspection by officers of the Sixth Army will climax weeks of preparation. The Military Ball, sponsored by the Sabre and Chevron Club, will follow the inspection as a highlight in R.O.T.C. activities.

During the fall semester the battalion, which consisted of two companies, was headed by Lieutenant Colonel Bertram Lee, Major Don Menegay, Captain Adjutant Conrad Aughinbaugh and Captain Hatch Graham. For greater effectiveness the R.O.T.C. was reorganized at the beginning of the spring semester into one company which had as the battalion commander, Lieutenant Colonel Allen Neims. Also serving as staff officers were Major Jack Cunningham, Captain Adjutant Bob Brown and 1st Lieutenant Humperey Stuetzel, with John Bringham as company commander.

The active drama department presented two "Color Day" revues, two plays, and aided in the Operetta production. The '47 Club Continental theme, with top hat backdrop cleverly executed by the stage crew and Mrs. Felton, vied for Color Day honors, with the unique S'47 idea of raising on stage a lighted Khalif tent. The suave formality of the Continentals differing widely from the easy grace of the Persian Khalifs, made both days outstanding.

Miss Barnes, drama coach, chose for the W'46 senior play the sparkling three act comedy, "Our Hearts were Young and Gay" and for the S'47 Senior Class, the one act comedy "The Mad Breakfast." Scenes from the former appear on these pages but both the playlet and the Operetta "Pirates of Penzance" came too late in the year to be included in the Chieftain.

This playlet concerned the people of a boarding house who became involved in the scheme of a practical joker. The mad pace of the whacky farce was kept to a high pitch by a well chosen cast and clever direction. Both casts received an enthusiastic response from student audiences.

Because of the many activities of the Music Department, it is difficult to divide praise and credit between the A Cappella, Boys' Glee, Girls' Glee, and Senior Orchestra. They are in constant demand, not only for University performances, but for outside groups.

In addition to providing music for the Color Days, Senior Play and Operetta productions, the Senior Orchestra presented a special concert of semi-popular numbers for the school and P.T.A. Outside activities have brought many honors to University through these fine musicians, who won an outstanding rating in the Spring Festival, had five members in All-City Orchestra and sent eleven reservationists to Salt Lake City with the Southern California Orchestra. The highlight of the group's social season, however, was the Alumni Banquet under the direction of Orchestra president, Betty Biller. Its success assures the banquet of becoming an annual affair.

In the fall the A Capella was a guest at the Eagle Rock High School Choir Festival and later, with the Boys' and Girls' Glee Clubs, presented a fine Christmas program in their home auditorium. Weeks of intense rehearsal will be climaxed this spring by a keenly anticipated production of "The Pirates of Penzance," considered one of Gilbert and Sullivan's most difficult operas for a school chorus. The principals of a cast chosen as the Chieftain met its copy deadline, were: Larry Swindell, Sam Haver, Howard Pixley, Bill Stringfellow, Stan Johnson, Will Ricor, Ken Shaw, Harry Elliott, Elton Kelchum, Bill Simon, Mardy Wagner, Jean Hoyt, Audrey Somers, Kris Romney, Grace Partin, Nancy Stroop, Doris Denson, Ellie Jayne, Mary Jane Wilford, June Rowley.

If the end of second period every Friday is a little more confused than usual, the reason is the distribution of Unihi's weekly newspaper, the Warrior.

Guided by Miss Katherine Reed in the editorial department, and Mr. Elmer King in printing, the Warrior gives news of school affairs, clubs, student activities, sports, editorials, and coming events to over 2,000 students, as well as a large number of alumni and the faculty.

Last fall the Warrior started a new policy of a double editorial staff, so twice as many students would be able to learn the difficult problems of deadlines, headline writing, and the fitting together of the jigsaw-puzzle-like dummy.

The fall staff, headed by editors-in-chief Ronnie Buck and Pete Stone, consisted of news editors Chuck Nogle and Howard Pixley; features, Lorena Fletcher and Georgeanne Wherry; sports, Paul Pressman and Larry Swindell; editorials, John Davies and Dolly Douglas; exchanges, Mary Jo Staples. Bob Gladson and Martin Golds made up the sports staff, and the reportorial staff included Betty Cable, Kitty Campbell, Carlotta Jelm, Howard Matlow, Jack Quine, Gay Riley, Barbara Scott, Christie Vogel, Anne Wear, Patsy Pumphrey, and Jerry Briggs. Howard Pixley was the Commissioner of Publications.

In spring, Pete Stone took over the reins as Commissioner of Publications, and Howard Matlow and Georgeanne Wherry became editors-in-chief. News editors were John Davies and Martin Golds; features, were handled by Jerry Briggs and Gay Riley; sports, by Bob Gladson; editorials by Dolly Douglas. The position of student advisor was created to help the reporters with problems. Lorena Fletcher, Paul Pressman, and Larry Swindell held these positions. The sports staff was represented by Dick Pilmer, Paul Pressman, Stan Sletzer, Larry Swindell, and Bill Woods; the reportorial staff by Sally Horn, Patsy Pumphrey, Josephine Mondello, Barbara Murray, Nessa Parker, George Rohrs, Barbara Scott, Mildred Snyder, Katherine Tummel, and Joanne Wherry.

Indispensable to Warrior production is the print-staff. Don Barnes was the shop foreman in the fall, and his staff included Bob Trotter, pressman; Diana Mosely, linotype; John Potter and John Goodwin, make-up; Jim Menge and Mark Hurford, circulation. Spring foreman was Bob Trotter, and his staff consisted of Doris McCullum, proof reader; Kurt Schloss, linotype; Jim Menge and Jim Eddy, circulation; John Potter and John Goodwin, makeup; and Don Barnes and Norman Cooper, pressmen.

These staffs have met deadlines, special editions, and last minute stories competently, to give University High its eagerly awaited weekly Warrior.

An annual must be planned, photographed, illustrated, engraved, edited, captioned, printed, proof-read, advertised and sold. Both fall and spring staffs took part in all production activities and in choosing Southern California for a theme it was their hope that the scenes and moods of our daily lives be caught in scratch board and in photograph to remind each Warrior of this year at University High School.

Faculty members backing the publication were Mr. Lindsey, general sponsor, and Mrs. Heisig, art sponsor. A great deal of credit is due them both for their interest and guidance. The editorial staff was competently headed by Carol Pumphrey, who found that write-ups, re-writes, deadlines and the many details of the publication and sale of an annual can consume time and energy but also be lots of fun. Norman Burns, as Technical Editor, was in charge of the dummy, making sure that the problems of space allotment, lay-out adjustment and picture reduction were solved. Lorena Fletcher took the responsibility for the class section and wrote the copy for the Continentals and Khalifs as well as for the Warrior Staff. Carlotta Jelm made picture appointments for over 400 seniors and wrote of drama and club activities. Margaret Heyler was responsible for the musical organizations and the G.A.A., while Jack Moore covered the Boys' League and Unihi's football teams. Joanne Wherry had the Girls' League, Georgeanne Wherry, administration, Don Raymond, track, Bob Van Dyke, gym and tennis and Howard Matlow, baseball. Dave Moore wrote of basketball and helped plan the cover design while Louise Phillips and Marcia Tucker were active in countless tasks which ranged from typing and picture arrangement to writing captions and identifying group pictures.

As heads of the art staff, the talented Janice Gooch and Marilyn Moe planned the dummy and made the layouts for the 1947 Chieftan, aided by Pat Francis. Competition was keen for the choice of illustrations for division pages. Janice Gooch originated the club page, Marilyn Moe, classes, Barbara Heiman, student government and Tetsuo Takeuchi, sports. Marilyn MacKenzie's illustration for fine arts was chosen, as was Bobbe Solomon's finis page. Kenji Tanaka designed the end sheet and Zedna Chapman the theme page, while both Kenji and Herb Robertson worked on the title page that was selected.
